Goochland Cares can provide comprehensive case management for individuals and families with acute, multiple, and complex problems. A case manager is assigned to learn about the situation and to help find solutions and resources. A case may be resolved in a one-time phone call or may involve multiple face-to-face meetings. Situations can include domestic violence, a housing crisis, untreated mental health, critical transportation needs, or other challenging life situations.

Contact Carol Dunlap, Family Services Coordinator, at 804.556.6260 for more details.
