Programs offered in the special units of the Medical Center that provide diagnostic and treatment to those who have acute or chronic mental or emotional disturbances, require hospitalization for maximum benefit, and who might be a threat to themselves, to their families or to others if left in the community or placed in a less restrictive treatment setting. The units offer treatment for life-threatening: depressive disorders; reactions to situational crises; obsessive/compulsive disorders; anxiety/panic disorders; substance-induced disorders; and other psychiatric disorders.

For new admissions, inquiries, or urgent psychiatric and addiction treatment questions for adults, call the Inova Psychiatric Assessment Center (IPAC) at 703-280-7560.
