Our knowledgeable HealthSource representatives can assist you in finding a physician on the Sentara RMH Medical Staff who best meets your needs. HealthSource provides information about location, special interests, medical education and more. The list of medical professionals includes more than 250 physicians and allied health professionals in over 350 specialties.

HealthSource also offers referrals about nutrition, understanding how to live with diabetes, or learning life-saving techniques such as CPR. Offers information on classes and groups for all ages, from soccer and swim lessons for children to activities for older adults. The HealthSource representatives can register you for a wide variety of classes and activities.

The extensive HealthSource database provides information and contact numbers for local and national organizations, and community services. The representatives can help you find the Sentara RMH program or department that meets your needs, from outpatient lab services to behavioral health to childcare provider networks. In addition, HealthSource can provide resource information on an array of services such as rural transportation, local and national support groups, loaner closet for medical equipment, organ donation, health screenings, personal home care and caregiver assistance, plus much more.
