Lee County Redevelopment and Housing Authority (RHA) assists low-income families in finding affordable housing through the administration of 532 Section 8 rental assistance programs or the Housing Choice Voucher Program.

The Authority manages 48 public housing units serving elderly, handicapped or individuals with disabilities in addition to 41 2-4 bedroom public housing family units.

Home Ownership Opportunity Program helps low-income families become self-sufficient and possible homeowners. If eligible, help is provided with new construction of single dwelling homes for moderate-middle income home buyers.
