The Intensive Care Unit at Mountain View Regional Hospital (Mountain View) is a 4-bed unit utilizing state of the art technology. Patients cared for in this unit are trauma, medical, cardiac, post-surgical, and minor trauma. Patients are monitored 24-hours a day.

The Step Down Unit is a 4-bed unit serves as an intermediate level of care adjacent to the ICU. Adult and geriatric patients are generally patients in the Step Down Unit who require closer observation than is provided on the Medical/Surgical Unit.

Mountain View is a facility of Ballad Health.
