Volunteers make a difference in the lives of patients, visitors, and staff at LewisGale Hospital Pulaski. Volunteers help the hospital at the information desk, at the patient registration, delivering mail and newspapers, providing community information to families in waiting areas, distributing and collecting meal trays, assist in patient discharge. Other volunteers work on assignment, serving as regular help to a specific area or unit of the hospital. Usually, a volunteer works up to 3 hours a week.

Apply to become a volunteer by downloading and filling out the application form or picking up one in our Volunteer Office. Call 540-994-8412 for more information.
