Colonial Behavioral Health offers Pathways, a behavioral health service that meets the needs of older adults. The services are planned with the older adult and are based on his or her needs and preferences. Decisions are made together and in partnership with the providers and family. The Pathways brochure is available on the website.

The Pathways Program provides the following services:

- Psychosocial and psychological assessment;
- Behavioral health service planning;
- Case management;
- Psychiatric services;
- Counseling for individuals, couples and groups;
- Behavior management and substance abuse intervention;
- Emergency services.
