Eggleston Services provides training in a retail environment and plant craft to those individuals with an intellectual disability or developmental disability. Participants are involved in activities that promote social functioning and community integration. Training is also provided that helps to promote and maintain health and independence in the areas of self-care, hygiene, proper nutrition, and the management of medication.

The activities provide opportunities for skill development, increased socialization skills, enhanced communication skills, and using the resources in the community. Pre-vocational training and supported employment.
