The Friendship House residence is operated by Alleghany Highlands Community Services. The facility is a home for individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities. Group homes provide congregate living arrangements to a small group of adults with recognized developmental disabilities. Consumers receive primary care, which is comprised of room, board, and general supervision. In addition, they receive assistance, training and specialized supervision according to their individual support needs and preferences. Each resident is encouraged to live as independently as possible with daily living activities and integration in community activities.
