A program of New River Valley Community Services, New Horizons, located in Fairlawn, is a Crisis Stabilization Unit (CSU) that provides services to adults, both male and female, ages 18 and over, including those placed under Temporary Detention Orders (TDO's) and commitment orders. The program serves individuals with acute behavioral health issues.

Crisis stabilization may last up to 15 days and includes comprehensive, integrated behavioral health services that are targeted at recovery from the crisis. While most services are provided in the residential setting, some may be provided during the day on a case-by-base basis. Individuals with Medicaid may be eligible for home-based services.
