Life Line Counseling Center offers the following programs for adults:

Substance Abuse and DWI Programs - Assessment, Treatment, and Relapse Prevention

Korean language programs for substance abuse and DWIs Adult Sex Addiction -

Assessment, Treatment, and Relapse Prevention Adult Services include Anger, Anxiety, Depressed Mood, Marital Distress and Spiritual Counseling within a traditional Christian framework.

An assessment will be done at the first session and treatment options will be discussed. They include individual, group, individual plus group sessions each week. Additionally, family counseling may be suggested. A more intensive outpatient program is available for those with a serious substance abuse problem. It is designed to provide many of the program components routinely built into day or residential programs but running from 2 1/2 - 3 hours 3-4 evenings per week.
