Duiguid Funeral Service & Crematory offers assistance with planning a life commemoration or funeral service to help survivors adjust to their loss and at the same time celebrate the life that was lived. Assistance is given with choosing a casket or cremation containers, taking into consideration financial barriers, and with every other aspect of funeral arrangements.

Pre-arrangement and prepayment of funerals are becoming more common, to lessen the burden for family members and to guarantee a service and funeral at today's prices. Please call for more information.

Choosing between a traditional casket burial and cremation is a personal decision. After cremation has taken place, you can still hold a life celebration allowing you and others to honor a life well lived.
