The Williamsville Wellness program is a 28-day intensive drug and alcohol use treatment program for men and women. The focus is on individual therapy to address the roots of addiction. Treatment modalities include individual psychotherapy, family therapy, hypnotherapy, art therapy, and wellness issues with a belief in the Twelve Step Program.

As a holistic treatment center, Williamsville Wellness addresses the body, mind, spirit, and emotions. With individual sessions, patients are able to address behaviors and contributing factors to addiction, emotional and mental health, family issues, and the impact of addiction on body, mind, and spirit,

Treatment is available in residential, outpatient, and online settings.
