Eggleston Services offers employment training and opportunities to individuals with intellectual disabilities and other disabilities. Eggleston Community Employment department works to train and place individuals, as well as to help them gain knowledge about job readiness, interpersonal/life skills, and job skills.

Referrals for community employment must come one of the following:

- Department of Aging and Rehabilitative Services (DARS)
- Department for the Blind and Vision Impaired
- Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services (DBHDS)
(Medicaid Waiver)

For information on community employment opportunities, call the office.
