CrisisOne is a mobile crisis service available for children, adolescents, and adults who have a mental health diagnosis and are experiencing a mental health crisis that is putting them at risk of psychiatric hospitalization and/or incarceration. CrisisOne provides normative environments, within the individual's own residence, with a high assurance of safety and security.

CrisisOne consists of symptom and behavior management, individual and group counseling, coping skill development, and psychiatric evaluation if needed.

Benefits include 24 hours a day immediate response; mobile counselors can come to you; Medicaid eligible; preventing hospitalization and more.
