WindsorMeade Williamsburg is located within The Historic Triangle, and just minutes from historic Williamsburg, Virginia and offers a continuum of care for residents. The continuing care retirement community is a pedestrian-friendly walking and gated community offering uniquely designed residences and comprehensive amenities. There are 96 single-family villas and 85 independent-living apartment residences in Windsor Hall. The Club House is available with a wide-screen television, socialization, celebrations, and more. An individual from the community can enter directly into Assisted Living or Skilled Nursing, provided space is available.

Four types of living arrangements are available:

- Independent Living in Villas or Apartments: Residential or Independent Living requires people to be able to live independently, to be in relatively good health, and to have financial resources that are sufficient to allow an adequate and enjoyable lifestyle.
- Assisted Living at the Abingdon House: Assisted Living is designed for those who require assistance from time to time, but are not in need of nursing home care. Assistance with the tasks of daily living, such as bathing and dressing, are offered at this level.
- Short/Long Term Nursing Care at the Hadley House: Skilled Nursing Center will provide licensed short-term and long-term nursing care. Special care will also be available for those with Alzheimer's and other dementia-related health concerns.
- Memory Support at the Manchester House: Memory Support is specifically designed for those dealing with the challenges brought on by Alzheimer's and related dementias. The house supports 18 residents and offers programs and services tailored for each resident.

Also providing comprehensive rehabilitation services including personalized physical, occupational and speech therapy after a hospitalization, surgical procedure, injury, or illness.

A community of Pinnacle Living, WindsorMeade is a private pay Continuing Care Retirement Community. Membership is not required to live or work at WindsorMeade Williamsburg.
