Region Ten Community Services Board (RTCBSB) offers psychosocial rehabilitation serves individuals recovering from the impact of mental illness. This program provides a safe and supportive environment with opportunities for rehabilitation. Together with staff, members design a plan to achieve personal recovery. This service offers a supportive environment where members take part in recovery-oriented activities. Program services include learning to work in ways that reinforce personal achievement, empowerment, and increasing psychological and social skill development. The program activities are building blocks that club members use to gain more satisfying relationships, personal growth, and productive employment in the community. The social opportunities in the clubhouse increase members' confidence as they develop new friendships and rejoin the community. The program's opportunities and recovery-inducing work reinforce the clinical treatments, other psychiatric rehabilitation and supports. The clubhouse aims to support the fullest possible recovery, to integrate members as an active and productive member of his or her family and community.
