Valley Community Services Board (VCSB) offers the Child Case Management program, The program provides comprehensive case management services to children and adolescents. Children in the program have social, emotional or behavioral problems that interfere with their ability to function at school, home or in the community.

Case managers assist children, adolescents and their families with accessing medical, psychiatric, social, emotional, vocational and other supports essential to meeting their basic needs. Service components of case management include:

- assessing clinical needs,
- referring and linking to related service providers,
- monitoring services,
- supporting the child and family through the process.
