Second Story has a limited number of rooms and housing opportunities for young people, including youth leaving foster care with no home to go to, youth trying to finish high school without help, or dealing with homelessness or other tough situations. This program is for youth 18 to 24 years of age. This program is not a shelter.

Second Story can help youth with housing, counseling and life skills support so that they are equipped to fulfill their potential and become self sufficient adults. Three ways Second Story can help:

- Rapid Re-Housing provides housing and other supports up to two years. Young people must meet certain criteria.
- FCPS Youth provides housing for young people who are currently enrolled in school through Fairfax County Public schools.
- Transitional Living Program provides housing for young people who are unstably housed. They are required to have a job or be attending school and life skills groups.
